DREARY OUTLOOK FOR Denver, Sept. 21. Snow and rain countre

fell throughout the night along the stern slope of the Rocky mounains and it was a dreary outlook that greeted the coal miners today, he second day of their strike.

Early today conditions in the various camps appeared to be little changed from last night when reports received at the governor's office indicated fifty per cent of the minera at work. Operators and miners' headquarters continued their claims that the men on strike varied from 50 to 80 per cent.

International Vice President Frank J. Hares of the United Mine Workers of America at Trinidad today gave out a statement ciniming that 95 per cent of the miners in Colorado had quit and amerting that others would join the sirikers before the end of the week when convinced that the national organization will care for them.
